"Member" means a member of any Committee of a seed-potato control area constituted under the Act:

"Minister" means Minister of Agriculture:

"Vacancy," with reference to the membership of any Committee, includes any vacancy about to occur by the expiration of the term of any member.

2. Every Committee shall be composed of four members, and, except as provided in section 5 of the Act, three of the members shall be persons nominated or elected by the owners of land in the seed-potato control area and one person nominated by the Minister.

3. The members appointed under section 5 of the Act, other than the nominee of the Minister, shall hold office for the terms fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. The members first elected to succeed those appointed under section 5 of the Act shall hold office as follows: One for the term ending with the second annual meeting next following the constitution of the seed-potato control area; one for the term ending with the third annual meeting next following the constitution of the seed-potato control area; and one for the term ending with the fourth annual meeting next following the constitution of the seed-potato control area. 4. With the exception of any member appointed under section 5 of the Act and any of the immediate successors to those appointed, and any member nominated by the Minister, and any member appointed to succeed a member who has resigned or died, every member shall hold office from the time of his appointment until the third annual meeting next following.

5. The Committee of every seed-potato control area shall, in the month of January next following the constitution of the seed-potato control area and in the month of January in each year thereafter, call a meeting of the owners of land in the seed-potato control area for the purpose of electing a member or members of the Committee to fill any vacancies in the membership of the Committee, and for the transaction of such other business as may be necessary.

8. No person shall be nominated as a candidate if he refuses to accept the nomination.

9. If at the first election no more candidates are nominated than there are vacancies to fill, the persons nominated shall be deemed elected as members, and the owners present shall decide by vote the respective terms of office of the members so elected.

10. If more candidates are nominated than are required to fill the vacancies, the chairman shall, with the consent of the majority of owners present, declare when nominations are closed and shall then proceed to take the votes of the owners as to the candidates to be elected.

Any member of the Committee may, and the secretary-treasurer on the requisition of a member shall, at any time summon a meeting of the Committee. Any order or determination signed by all members of the Committee shall be valid and effective, whether signed at a meeting of the Committee or otherwise.

17. In the event of any casual vacancy in the membership of the Committee the remaining members of the Committee shall constitute the Committee until the vacancy is filled. If any member of the Committee is absent from the Province for three months or fails to attend to his duties for a like period, the other members of the Committee may declare his office vacant. Any member of the Committee shall cease to hold office if he is convicted of any offence under the Act or regulations, or if by notice in writing to the Committee he resigns his office, or if his office is declared vacant in accordance with this clause.
